BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards for the favourable consideration of Government a copy of a letter from Mr. T. Aravamudu Iyengar, requesting that his emoluments may be fixed at Rs. 700/- per mensem so long as he continues to ~~offg~~ officiate as Supdt. of the Bangalore Central Jail

NOTES AND ORDERS.

In passing orders on the proposals of the Retrenchment Committee the Government fixed the pay of the Superintendent of the Bangalore Central Jail at Rs. 700/- per mensem and directed that when officers of the General Service were appointed for the post they should draw the pay of this grade plus a local allowance which would bring up their emoluments to Rs 700/- per mensem.

It was further stated in the order that at the next change in the ~~Superintendentship~~ superintendentship of the Central Jail (~~after~~ when Mr Achyuta Rao's services were otherwise utilised) the medical & executive charges of the Jail should be held by different officers, the medical officer getting a separate charge allowance for his services.

Now the strength of this order Mr Aravamudu Iyengar claims that his emoluments should be calculated on the pay fixed in the order, viz Rs 700/- & not on Rs 600/- as is now done by the Comptroller.

From the order of the 2nd May 1908

it seems that the pay of the Supdt in the executive charge of the Jail alone has been fixed at Rs 700/-, the allowance to the Medical Officer being calculated separately.

But in para 4 of his letter the undersigned pays as claims the full pay of the appointment, though he is merely acting in the place of the permanent incumbent for a short time. From the Retrenchment order it seems that Govt intended that Rs 700/- should be fixed as the total emoluments of a permanent holder of the appointment & do not seem to have contemplated (it is doubtful whether) thereby by saying that even acting persons should get the full pay of the appointment.

Para 11 may perhaps be Consulted in the matter.

~~Rs~~ 600/- for purposes of calculating the acting allowances due to Mr A. Iyengar. The order of 1908 seems to contemplate ~~Rs~~ 700/- as the pay of the Supt when he is a Civil Officer and the allowance of ~~Rs~~ 100/- to a medical officer is to be in addition to the pay of 700/- to be drawn by the Supt. Sofar, at least Mr A. Iyengar's claim for a higher allowance seems to be sustainable.

(2). But Mr A. also claims that he is entitled to draw the full pay of the appt viz ~~Rs~~ 700/-, though he is only an acting Officer. In other words he contends that the intention of the Govt order of 1908 is, that a Supt (when he is a Civil Officer) should draw a minimum salary of ~~Rs~~ 700/- whether he is acting or permanent. But he himself admits that this intention is not expressed in the G.O. in question, and it is difficult to see how it can be ~~said to arise~~ inferred by implication.

The order of 2nd May 1908 does not seem to contemplate that acting Superintendents should get a Salary of Rs 700 a month. Rs 700/- has not also been fixed as the special minimum Salary of offg Superintendents as in the case of other officers referred to in ark: 69 M. S. 2 Cis. In these circumstances Mr Aravamuda Iyengar is only entitled to an acting allowance calculated on Rs 700/- the pay of the Supt. The calculation of the offg allce on Rs 600/- made by the Comptroller does not seem to be correct.

The Govt order does not lay down any method of calculating acting allowance in the case of officiating offrs - The method of fixing the emoluments as grade pay plus local allowance so as to bring the total to Rs 600/- may be held to apply only to permanent appointments. I think that the G.O. d. 2.5.8 makes it quite clear that the Pay of the Supt. (independently of the Medical Charge) shd be 700 Rs. But it does not say that an acting officer should be entitled to get this amount as minimum Pay. In art. 69 of the C.S. Regulations, where Minima are fixed for certain Special Offices, officiating officers are expressly mentioned. The Govt. order was not concerned with settling the Pay of acting Officers at all. 700 Rs was not fixed as pay as it was thought that certain officers of other departments might be appointed without being taken away from their usual line. In such cases, they wd get the difference as local allce.

As the order stands, I think that Mr. A. Iyer is entitled to an acting allowance of $\frac{1}{5}$ of 700 or 140 Rs a month

As it is stated that the existence of Art 106 M.S.R. did not attract the attention of Govt. at the time the G.O. of May 1908 was passed & that the intention of the order was to give Rs 700 to the Supdt independently of any allowance for the office in medical charge I acquiesce in the decision of the Council as regards the claim in question.

I would suggest however that the order of May 1908 may be revised on the lines stated in my note of 1.9.10 to meet future cases so that Art 106 M.S.R. may not be a dead letter or unmeaning.

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. G. Aravamudu Iyengar, Acting Senior Assistant Commissioner on Rs.450+50, was appointed to act as Superintendent of the Central Jail, Bangalore, from the 15th July 1910 during the employment of Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao as Officiating Senior Surgeon.

2. The Comptroller issued him a pay slip in respect of this acting appointment as follows:-

Pay as Assistant Commissioner, First class	-	Rs.450
Acting allowance as Superintendent, Central Jail at $\frac{1}{5}$ of Rs.600	-	" 120
	Total -	570.

3. Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar has made a representation to the effect that under Government Proceedings No.J.3295-96/Pr.72-06-2, dated 2nd May 1908 passing orders on the subject of retrenchments in the Jail Department, he is entitled to receive salary at Rs. 700 a month during the period of his employment as Superintendent, Central Jail.

4. The orders bearing on this case are contained in the Government Proceedings dated 2nd May 1908 referred to in the last para, and Article 106 of the Mysore Service Regulations. Under the former the pay of the Superintendent was fixed at Rs.700 and it was also said that the Government considered it desirable that the medical and executive charges of the Jail should be generally held by separate officers and that a separate medical officer would, in future, be placed in medical charge of the Jail with an allowance of Rs.100. Under Article 106 of the Mysore Service Regulations "the aggregate cost for the administrative and medical charges" of the Central Jail "shall not exceed the total pay payable for the combination of the two charges in one person".

5. In view of the provisions of Article 106, Mysore Service Regulations, and of the fact that the Government Order of 2nd May 1908, which fixed the pay of the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Rs.700, gave only Rs.700 as pay (exclusive of personal allowance) to Mr. Achyuta Rao who combined in himself the executive and medical charges of the Jail, the Comptroller has interpreted the above Government Order to mean that Rs.700 is the pay of the combined appointment, and that only Rs.600 would be payable to an officer who had only the executive charge of the Jail.

6. Further the Comptroller has held that an acting Superintendent of the Jail is entitled only to receive acting allowances calculated on the pay fixed for the appointment. Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar on the other hand contends that he is entitled to the full emoluments fixed for the appointment as the Government Order of May 1908 says that "when officers of the general service are appointed as Superintendents, they will draw the pay of their grade with a local allowance which will bring up their emoluments to Rs.700".

7. As regards the first point, viz. whether the pay of the appointment should be regarded as Rs. 600 or Rs.700, it will be seen from the office notes that when the Government Order of May 1908 was passed the provisions of Article 106 of the Mysore Service Regulations were not considered and that the intention apparently was to fix the pay of the appointment at Rs.700 when held by an officer holding only executive charge of the Jail.

8. The Council is therefore of opinion that in calculating Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar's emoluments the pay of the appointment should be held to be Rs.700, and that he should be given acting allowance at one-fifth of Rs.700.

9. This may be approved.

10. The Financial Secretary in acquiescing in this decision as regards the present case, suggests that Rs.700 may, for the future, be regarded as the pay of the combined appointment and that the pay of an officer holding only executive charge of the Central Jail, without the medical charge may be fixed at Rs.600, so that Article 106 of the Mysore Service Regulations may not be a dead letter. This may also be approved.

1 I have the honor to state that I received a salary advice slip from the Comptroller, a copy of which is herewith appended for your kind perusal whereby I was informed that I was entitled to draw an acting allowance of Rs.120 or 20% on Rs.600 in addition to my permanent pay of Rs.450 during my tenure of my office as Officiating Superintendent of the Central Jail. In submitting my representation in the matter I beg to state as follows.

2 At para 3 of Government Proceedings No.J.3295-96/Pris.72-06-2 dated 2nd May 1908, the pay of the Superintendent was fixed at Rs.700/- per mensem and the Government directed that when officers of the General service were appointed to the office they would draw the pay of their grade with a local allowance which would bring up their emoluments to Rs.700 per mensem.

Having regard to the responsibilities of the office, Government consider that the pay of the Superintendent should be fixed at Rs.700 per mensem. When officers of the General service are appointed as Superintndents, they will draw the pay of their grade with a local allowance which will bring up their emoluments to Rs.700 per mensem.

3 It was not contemplated that this pay should include the allowance due to the Medical Officer in medical charge of the Jail when the Superintendent is a Civil Officer. It is distinctly

"Government also consider it desirable that the medical and the executive charges of the Jail should be generally held by separate officers and a separate medical officer will, in future be placed in medical charge of the Jail with an allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem".

distinctly stated that the Medical officer should be separate from the officer in executive charge and that he should draw an allowance of Rs. 100. From this it is clear that including this allowance the total cost should be Rs. 800 and not Rs. 700 as it appears to have been considered by the Comptroller.

4 That this was the intention of Government would be further clear from the observations made at the close of the para, with reference to the appointment of Dr. P.S.Achyuta Rao, for the time being, on a pay of Rs. 700 plus Rs. 200 personal allowance and the direction that the separation of the executive and medical charges with a separate allowance for the latter will be carried into effect at the next change in the Superintendentship.

5 Next, as to the question of allowing me to draw 20% of the pay of the appointment as officiating Superintendent, I beg to state since the appointment carries according to the Government Order no fixed pay but an emolument of Rs. 700 made up of the substantive pay of the incumbent and a varying local allowance equal to the difference between such pay and the specified emolument of Rs. 700, there is no reason for the calculation of an acting allowance for an officiating incumbent. Though not expressly stated, the appointment is similar to those enumerated under Article 69 of the Mysore Service Regulations which carry a special minima of salaries.

6 It would thus be seen, that it was the intention of Government to separate the executive and medical charge of the Jail, that in view of the responsibilities of the office the pay of the former was fixed at Rs. 700 per mensem while the medical charge was to carry an additional allowance of Rs. 100 and that when an officer in General Service is appointed to the executive charge he should draw his grade pay and a local allowance equal to the difference between such pay and Rs. 700. In the above view the acting nature of the appointment ought not to make any alteration in the emoluments which should be drawn by me.

7 I request therefore that you will be so good as to submit this representation to the Comptroller in order that the advice slip may be revised and that my emoluments may be fixed at Rs. 700 per mensem.
